COOP'S CORNER

The Mother of Exiles

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

Do you recognize these words? I'll give you a hint: they are not from the Bible. They are part of a sonnet called "The New Colossus" which was written by poet Emma Lazarus in 1883. In 1903, the poem was engraved on a bronze plaque and mounted inside the lower level of the pedestal of The Statue of Liberty.

The Statue of Liberty represents many things, among them friendship between nations and freedom from oppression. Before air travel, ships would sail into New York Harbor and Lady Liberty would welcome their passengers, many of them being immigrants traveling to the United States for the first time. Originally conceived as an emblem of the friendship between the people of France and the U.S., and a sign of their mutual desire for liberty, over the years The Statue has become much more. It is the Mother of Exiles, greeting millions of immigrants and embodying hope and opportunity for those seeking a better life in America. It stirs the desire for freedom in people all over the world. It represents the United States itself. Although The New Colossus was written in 1883, what it was talking about was addressed thousands of years ago in scripture in Leviticus 19:33-34. Which states the fact that whenever a stranger joins the congregation, they are not to "do him (or her) wrong" but rather, "treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you." That means, "you shall love him as yourself," or as Jesus said, "you shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mark 12:31). God reminds Israel (and us) that we too "were strangers in the land of Egypt."

The truth is, if we are going to take the bible at its word, we can't be showing partiality to anyone who is different from us. Skin color or national origin doesn't matter to God and it should not matter to us either. What does matter is that we love others as we love ourselves and that we show hospitality to strangers, regardless of where they're from.

Read what it says in Hebrews 13:2 "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." When was the last time you invited an angel to dinner?

One more scripture: Deuteronomy 10:17-19. <sup>17</sup> Because the LORD your God is the God of all gods and Lord of all lords, the great, mighty, and awesome God who doesn't play favorites and doesn't take bribes. <sup>18</sup> He enacts justice for orphans and widows, and he loves immigrants, giving them food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> That means you must also love immigrants because you were immigrants in Egypt. Seems pretty clear to me. In a time when we are hearing all sorts of things that go against what we have been called to do as children of a loving and compassionate God, may we stand up for justice and righteousness, whatever the cost.

And I look forward to seeing you on Sunday, my friends...

Pastor Tom

CHURCH AND WORLD MINISTRY

FAITH IN ACTION

SAVE the DATES: In our January Newsletter in Coop's Corner, Pastor Tom encouraged each of us to INVITE 5 friends to church. Well, we have two upcoming opportunities to do just that, so go write or type them on your calendar right now!

- April 2 (no fooling) 11 AM after worship: Come to our MISSION FAIRE. You'll get to meet staff from our mission partners, find out what these community organizations do, find out about current volunteer opportunities and munch on yummy snacks.

GIVE BLOOD, GIVE LIFE

Pastor Tom encouraged us to sign up for the Interfaith Red Cross blood donation event happening on March 11 (8 AM-2 PM) at the Church of Latter Day Saints, 6625 Camden Avenue, San Jose, CA 95120 in Almaden Valley. You can sign up by going to: redcrossblood.org.

The HOPE Group responded to an urgent need for coats and blankets for homeless shelters during the colder winter weather conditions. Thanks to De Lynn Coop for making a plea to the congregation.

*Linda Buckley,
Elder Church and World Ministry Team*

Remembering Marian Jordan

Marian Jordan was not only a dear friend to many of us but a faithful and dedicated member of our community of faith who was taken from us tragically and unexpectedly in 2006 along with her loving companion Edward Désandré. Before their deaths, Edward was instrumental in making our court yard a reality with his very generous donation in Marian's honor.

With the recent repainting of our church exterior, the original 3"x5" plastic memorial plaque was weathered and needed to be removed. A more substantial plaque befitting Marian's memory and Edward's extraordinary generosity made from stainless steel has been donated and installed on the Multipurpose Room wall facing our court yard.

Youth Honor God on Youth Sunday

We could not have been more proud of our youth on Sunday, January 29 when they stepped up to the pulpit and presented our worship service entirely on their own. Youth Director Injoh Tanwani provided an inspirational sermon entitled “Honor God” relating to the day’s scriptures: Jonah 1:7-17, 2:10, 3:1-3a and Ecclesiastes 12:9-14. Elder Kate Manley was also on hand in leading us in our Joys and Concerns. Thank you to Injoh and our youth for presenting such a beautiful service!

Our Youth (L-R):

Teke Ngwa, Owen Paterson, Mason Paterson, Youth Director Injoh Tanwani, Rogan Souter, Rhona Souter, Zoe Walker, Isabel Limon

Youth Director Injoh Tanwani provided a thought-provoking sermon entitled “Honor God.”

Thank you ...

... to our worship leaders in January: Marylyn Goode, Linda Buckley, Dave Robertson and Laura Davis. Please contact Dave Robertson if you’re interested in being a worship leader.

Thanks also to our volunteer ushers during January: Kate Manley, Chris De La Roca, Barb Overholt, Injoh Tanwani, Carol Mello. Usher Coordinator Rebecca Elliot schedules ushers and would appreciate members signing up for a Sunday in the next several months. The sign-up sheet is on the Activity Table in the courtyard every Sunday after worship.

Special thanks to Rev. Nan Swanson who led us in worship on New Year’s Day and Marylyn Goode who organized the whole thing!

YOUTH MINISTRY

During the holidays the youth participated in the Alternative Christmas campaign. We raised $1,519 which was donated to the Giving Catalog Presbyterian Ministry campaign towards a garden well and filtration devices. We thank the congregation for their support and donations to achieve our goal.

This past year the youth also completed confirmation classes and presented their affirmations of faith for the congregation in December 2016.

In January, under Pastor Tom and Injoh's leadership we celebrated our first Youth service. Everyone did a fabulous job! I have received very positive feedback regarding the service. Although everyone was nervous I think it was a proud accomplishment for everyone. Please see the photo on the next page.

ADULT ED MINISTRY

The Sunday morning Bible Study in the bulletin continues through the season of the rain and sun. Looking at God's love and how it guides us through our lives, we seek to follow His path of love. God calls us to make connections that give our lives new meaning.

As the Lord leads us, let us respond in love. Look into the Bible and let the scriptures help you discover just how God calls us to love our neighbors.

Romans 8:28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to His purpose.

What are you called to do? What are you called to say? How are you showing or sharing God's love?

Carol Miller, Adult Ed Ministry Elder

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

Thanks to all of you who purchased PW fundraiser nuts these past few months. Our profit was around $646. We already voted to provide $150 to 'The Grateful Garment Project and we renewed our Annual PW Mission Pledge for $200. We will be looking for other worthy community causes and possible projects around our church. A reminder to those who regularly attend PW, your annual membership dues of $12 is now payable (you can give your check made out to PW to Cathy Warrick). At our meeting on Tuesday, January 24, we decided to suspend the Secret Sister program for this year as we have had low participation. We still plan to have our annual Christmas Gathering in December and will do our cookie and gift exchange.

There is a special PW event coming up in March that is worth noting on your calendar. On Saturday, March 25, Presbyterian Women will gather at Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church from 9:30 AM - 2:30 PM for a forum on "Levels of Literacy". Roberto Gill, the Director of Educational Programs at Sacred Heart Community Services in San Jose, will be the speaker. There will be a panel of experts from pre-school, elementary, secondary and adult levels! This is an area of mission work for PCUSA and PW. In 2015, an initiative was adopted by the 221st General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The initiative, titled "Educate a Child, Transform the World," seeks to participate in the alleviation of global poverty. Come learn how we can make an impact locally. We can take action to ensure that children develop good reading skills. Reading unlocks the world of education. A child who can read can comprehend math problems, meet characters in books, and understand that history is the fascinating past that makes us who we are. A child who can read realizes that reading leads to learning and discovery - from the secrets of science and how to improve crops to applying that knowledge to feed a village. Reading is the key to educating a child who will transform the world. Social Justice issues cannot be solved without looking at a fundamental reason that handicaps any effort for change - LITERACY FOR ALL. Reservations (lunch is included) need to be made by early March. You can email Rosaleen Zisch at rmgzisch@gmail.com

Our next STHPC PW meeting date is being changed to Saturday, February 18 from 10 AM - noon. We will be doing lesson #5 of our PW study, 'Who is Jesus' and we will be exploring thru the lens of Paul. We will also start discussing when and how we will approach doing our annual Women's Celebration Sunday Service. All Women are invited to come. We meet in the Multi-Purpose room at the church.
