"Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

CHILDREN'S CHURCH NEWS

Festival of Children is coming up on February 23rd. Festival of Children is a combined worship service with St. Matthew's we do together each year. The best part is our joint Church School students leading in worship. Each year we alternate between an Episcopal service and a Presbyterian service, and this year it is our turn. Nate is busy working with children to explore the Presbyterian liturgy of worship and to create our own around this year's theme: "What Breaks Your Heart?" This is a worship service not just led by children but also shaped by them, and will include a sermon by Nate Taylor our Co-Director of Family Ministry. Please make sure you are here to share in worship as our children lead us.
