

Sumter Wilson on his 5th grade graduation day! Congratulations!

Let's Talk!

In light of recent events you may need a way to talk to your children about racism, justice and how to love and help in the midst of it all. Please take a look at the resources here.

Sun, June 14th Worship Service RSVP

To help us prepare accordingly, please take a moment to fill out this form to let us know if you plan to attend worship in the sanctuary on Sunday, June 14th at 9:30 AM.

Please respond by Tuesday, June 9th.

Office Hours beginning Monday, June 8th:

The following will be office hours for the HVPC staff as we transition back to on site ministry at HVPC.

Natalie: Mon-Wed-Fri.....10am until 2pm
Hanna: Tue-Thur.....10am-2pm (and by appointment)
Rusty: Tues-Wed.....10am-2pm (and by appointment)
Gary: By appointment

Please note, these are the times that the staff will be in the office. However, we will continue to operate as a staff Monday through Friday from 9am until 2pm as we have prior to and throughout the Covid 19 pandemic. OUR OPERATING HOURS ARE NOT CHANGING. However, these times represent our transition to a staff on site presence. We expect to utilize this on site office schedule throughout the summer and will assess any potential changes to the schedule in late August of this year.

In addition to the schedule posted above, please note that, abiding by social distancing guidelines and appropriate professional boundaries, Hanna, Gary and Rusty are also available by appointment via phone, through media and in a variety of other ways. Please feel free to contact any of these staff members during standard office hours as you have need. As is our practice again, in consideration of the on site schedule posted above, Natalie will continue to be available via email and phone during standard office hours. Of course, in the case of an emergency, please call or contact Rusty any time.
