Pastor's Pen: Lent: Investments and Dividends

“Dust you are, and to dust you shall return.” On Ash Wednesday and all throughout Lent, we are reminded of our mortality, our sin, our frailty. We may not consider this an “uplifting” message. We may ask why we should spend what seems like too long of a season contemplating the “dark” side of our humanity and the Christian message.

We need the reminder. It impresses on us what sort of darkness our Lord Jesus entered for our sakes, and in which he died. Through the message of Lent the Spirit also rekindles in us the fire that only the grace of God can start.

Forty days (excluding Sundays) is set aside to bring home to us the grace of God that moved God to be with us in Jesus. Why take so much time with special services and other activities? I, for one, do not have enough personal discipline to do alone by myself the kind of reflection and worship as we do together during Lent. So, I welcome the quieter tones and healing messages of Lent.

I welcome the rest which comes from a gracious Lord who says, “Come to me, all you who labor hard and are burdened down, and I will give you rest.” This is our purpose in worship. Our fellowship during Lent is designed to slow us down, help us reflect, and gain refreshment, so that when Easter’s hopeful proclamation comes, our rejoicing has deep and rich meaning.

The Lenten journey is one of meaningful reflection, purposeful engagement and gracious receiving. We reflect on the meanings of Jesus’ trial, sufferings and death at Calvary. We engage purposefully in drawing on the strength afforded by forgiveness of sin and mutual encouragement in faith. We graciously receive what God has provided for restoration, life, and hope.

Make time for Lent activities. Alongside coming to Wednesday evening services, you may want to find some time to spend in Bible reading, quiet meditation, or doing something creative and constructive for which you ordinarily would not take time. You may have to trade one of your usual activities to do this. The investment is minimal compared with the life-giving dividends!

God’s blessings,
Pastor Bill

Dear Church Family,

We are starting the work required to begin the call process for a new full-time pastor. The Rev. Dr. Tracey Breashears Schultz, the Bishop's Associate for Leadership, attended the Church Council meeting on February 8 and gave us a presentation on how to begin the process and an overview of what all will be involved. The council had a follow-up meeting February 22 to begin preparing a slate of candidates to be on the call committee and we are planning a second meeting the first week in March. Please pray for the council as we begin this very important selection process and for the members who will be asked to participate on the call committee.

We have received another bill from the IRS in the amount of $6,820.90, which we have sent to our CPA to review.

Thanks to everyone who attended the congregational meeting on January 31 both in-person and on Zoom. If you were unable to attend, copies of the 2020 Congregational Report are available in the church office.

I pray you are all safe and warm with electricity and water.

Yours in Christ,

Mina Stagner

Youth & Family

Hello, New Life Church family,

In February, I attended our monthly meeting of the ELCA's Youth Ministry Network. Please be reminded that women can go to Lutherhill on March 5-7 for $160 per woman. The theme is Imago Dei (image of God) and photographer Ashleigh Reid will take individual photos. This is a time for body and spirit renewal. Also on March 26-28, youth in grades 1st-6th can attend Lutherhill's retreat for $80 (weekend event) and $30 for just Saturday.

In Pearland, March 27 @ 11:00 am - 9:00 pm. Outlaw Nation, Bud Light, and Bass Pro Shops are proud to present the 2021 Houston Music & Arts Festival, on March 27th and 28th at beautiful Independence Park. Come and enjoy major concerts, fine art displays, a classic car show, and dozens of fun attractions and contests. Check out the Taste of Texas Food Garden, with delicious cuisine, and cold domestic and craft beers. National recording artists will be performing throughout the afternoon and evening on the main stage, as well as juried visual artists presenting the heritage and the culture of our great city. And best of all, admission is just $12, with children under-12 free! So, bring the whole family for an awesome weekend of great fun: houstonartsfestival.com

If you live in Friendswood, be part of Spring Sparkle on Saturday, April 10th. The event is held at Centennial Park, 2200 S Friendswood Drive, and is open to Friendswood Residents only (must present ID as proof of residency upon entering the park):
www.ci.friendswood.tx.us/375/Spring-Sparkle-April

I am restarting Sunday school through Zoom, and I have emailed as many families as I could. If you have not received my invite, please let me know: sang@newlifelutheran.com. As of now, various youth events are postponed until the pandemic possibly dwindles down in the fall.

As I mentioned, the 2022 Youth Gathering is in Minneapolis on July 24-28. Please be sure to start saving up money if your student plans to attend. The target amount per person is $1500. If you save $100 a month from now until then, then you hit the target amount!

Continue to keep the Lord front and center in your daily lives and as a family:

Do the following:

- 1) Read the Bible or do devotions together at least 2X a week,
- 2) Pray together at every opportunity and
- 3) Come to worship on a weekly basis.

Sincerely,
Sang Kim, Director for Youth and Family Faith Formation

They have partnered with Pearland Parks and Recreation to plant 1,000 native trees in two locations, The Green Tee Trail and John Hargrove Environmental Complex. 200 volunteers are needed to help plant trees, mulch, water and pick up litter. Anyone wishing to participate, can register at the KPB web site <https://pearlandrecycles.com/tree-planting-volunteer-2021/>

Because of the very cold weather, we did not clean our adopt-a-spot on Saturday. Our next cleanup will be for Don't Mess With Texas Trash-Off Day, April 10. There will also be a Drug Take Back event on Earth Day, April 24.

This week we had to boil our water. Some couldn't because there was no power. Some had burst pipes and no water to boil. Some had to go to buy water at the store. Some had to go to distribution centers to get water because there was no water at the store. On our planet home, some have to walk a distance to get water from a well. Some have no well and have to get water from a pond. Some are sick because wherever they get water it is not safe to drink. Some have to leave home because there is no water at all, in unending drought. Some are not welcome anywhere else because others live there and fight them to keep what they have. Some die of thirst.

Water is a finite resource, but it is renewable. On our planet there is enough for all. We can reuse it over and over and we know how. In nature it is cleaned by filtration, sedimentation, and evaporation and distributed underground, above ground, and in the air. We know how to reduce what we need, reuse what we have, and recycle what we use. We can be mindful and grateful for this gift of God and we can share it with others through organizations such as Water to Thrive and Lutheran World Action. Water nourishes, cleanses, refreshes. It's here for all God's children.
