Pastor's Page

To the good people of New Life Lutheran Church,

NEW THINGS ARE COMING!

Greetings! I have been asked to offer a few words of introduction. My name is Pastor Grant Housewright, and have been asked to be New Life's Sunday pulpit supply person for the next few weeks, the short gap before your new pastor arrives.

I am a retired ELCA pastor, having moved to Houston in 2001, tackling retirement in September of 2020. Nancy and I have three daughters. Nancy teaches piano out of our home.

Highlighting a piece of scripture, from Paul's second letter to the people of Corinth, 5th chapter: "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come."

"New things have come", is a faith-mindset in a couple of ways. First, you and a new pastor are crossing a bridge to new things for both of you. I can just imagine your excitement, especially after many months of a journey. New life means new growth, new directions and fresh ideas regarding how your mission will spill out of your church doors and into the community. May the Holy Spirit be your guide and your stay of strength and patience!

Wait. There's more I'll put out, here. As we look at lives as Christians, in just a few short weeks, we'll be celebrating more new life. However, that "new" cannot be observed or even provide a hint of joy without first stepping on to the bridge that takes us there. We, at this very moment are on the bridge -- our Sunday scriptures have taken us on Jesus' journey from the wilderness to his entry into Jerusalem, to the garden where he was arrested, that offensive, accusatory, defensive and so-called trial and conversation with Pilate, to the cross, to the agonizing death, to the grave, from three days in the tomb, to the few men and women witnessing the first day of Easter!

What a bridge. What a message! The journey from observing Jesus to witnessing to others what has happened. This is us -- this is the other end of the bridge, which has taken us to new life. Both of these journeys take time: between pastors at New Life and Ash Wednesday to Easter.

What about the time in between? Keep worshipping, listening, inviting, loving, showing mercy, forgiving and being kind.

Thank you for allowing me to be with you, even for this short period of time - be at peace!

Pastor Grant Housewright

"Hello to you all at New Life Church!

This month, finds Mike in the hospital at the time the newsletter was to be completed, so the following are his words from last weeks "New Life News". Please pray for Mike's speedy recovery!

"First of all, just a word to let you know I have spoken with our Pastoral Candidate! Now I can tell you first hand that, just as the Call Committee explained to us on Council, he is extremely enthusiastic about New Life Lutheran Church, and he has studied us in great detail. My impression from a rather long conversation was nothing but impressive, spirit filled, intelligent, warm, and EXCITED! We will be sending him an offer for terms of service within a week or so. It should not be long after that we call a special meeting of the Congregation so you all can meet him, and VOTE! As I said before, it will be well worth the wait, as a pivotal and exciting moment in New Life's story!!

"On another important front, we have had another change in plans for a pastor to lead us until our new pastor arrives. He is familiar to many of you, so we felt it was an excellent choice. He is Pastor Grant Housewright, who has preached here in the past (as well as last Sunday at 10:30!). He is recently retired and transferred his membership to New Life at that time. He has been watching the services remotely for over a year. Pastor Grant has agreed to preach at both services every Sunday, as he said to me: "...for as long as I am needed"! He also mentioned that, in light of the fact that we have had so much tragedy and stress recently, he will be available for other needs that might arise. So, I am very happy to be able to say to you all, we will be in good hands!

"Last but not least! Please come out and join us for our last Wednesday evening Soup Supper (5:30-6:30), and an absolutely beautiful short service at 7:00. Johnny Salvesen is putting together a truly wonderful program for these. Don't miss it!

"Please continue your prayers for all of us on Council, the Staff, and all the wonderful volunteers that keep New Life moving onward and upward! Thank you always for your prayers, support, and especially your participation in the story that is NEW LIFE LUTHERAN CHURCH! May God bless and keep you all, every one, and wrap his huge loving arms around you all today and always!!!! Amen..."

Yours in Christ,

Mike Kiser

2022 Church Council President
713-515-6255

The Call Committee has been active for almost a full year in preparation and search for a candidate and has presented in Mid March their prime candidate for Call as Pastor to the New Life Church Council. The committee has met almost every Tuesday since that time.

I would like to personally thank the entire committee for their dedication, prayers and diligence in that preparation and search process as well as thank their families for allowing them to take the time away from their family lives in this endeavor.

Please also join me in thanking: Helen Beckman, Bryan Bradford, Jill Olson, Abby Roszak, Peter Weber, Susan Welch and Susie Welman for all their hard work.

Blessings,

Bubba Flowers and the Call Committee

Defeated by eternal life.

Thank you Lord, for the wonder of Easter.
