

Welcome to worship at Wake Forest Baptist Church. We are a welcoming and affirming congregation, welcoming all people, no matter their race, economic status, gender expression, or sexual orientation into full membership and leadership. If you are a visitor, please take a moment to fill out a visitor card or sign our guest book. (A special welcome to WFU alumni and friends!)

This morning is the first Sunday of the month, so we'll receive our hunger offering for Samaritan Ministries. All cash and designated checks will go to a local organization to fight hunger. Immediately following worship, all students and young adults are invited to join us in the Lower Auditorium for all-you-can-eat Pancakes!

November is stewardship month. Pledge cards have been mailed and can also be found on the hymnal cart.

Next Sunday, we'll receive our Beans! Beans! Offering (they're good for your heart!). Our pounds of dried beans will be donated to the New Communion Mobile Pantry and delivered to hungry people in Winston-Salem.

Thank you to Chris Hankins for joining us today. Ms. Hankins earned the Bachelor of Music in Music Education and Jazz Studies from UNCG and the Master of Music in Jazz Studies from NCCU. She has performed with such jazz greats as Reggie Workman, Curtis Fuller, Steve Wilson, Jimmy Heath, Joey Calderazzo and Branford Marsalis. Notable performances include the Newport Jazz Festival and Detroit Jazz Festival in 2009, and North Carolina Central's album entitled Yesterdays and Forever. After five years, Ms. Hankins left Wake Forest University's faculty to pursue a career as a performer, clinician, and private instructor. Many of her students have gone on to pursue degrees in music, as well as perform various styles of music all over the country.

Music and lyrics are reprinted with permission of OneLicense #A-719218.

* Call to Worship (bold in unison)

Betty Griffith

We give thanks, O God, for the saints who walked this journey before us.
We celebrate the saints who loved in the shadow of your wings.

We give thanks, O God, for those who dared travel as friends and disciples.
We celebrate those who sang in sync with your commandments.

We give thanks, O God, for those whose hearts pulsed with justice and grace.
We celebrate those who suffered to show us your kingdom.

Blest Be the Tie That Binds

DENNIS

*Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love:
the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.*

*When we are called to part, it gives us inward pain;
but we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.*

* Benediction
