

Rev. Dr. Berj Benjamin Gulleyan

Rev. Dr. Berj Benjamin Gulleyan comes to the First Presbyterian Church of Ramsey as Interim Pastor starting September 20, 2021. He will begin preaching September 26 at the 10:00 service. All are invited to Coffee with Pastor Berj at 9:30 before the service in Fellowship Hall every Sunday.

Having served the Lord as a missionary for 10 years and ministering as a senior pastor in a church for 15 years, Berj planted The Church of The Risen King in obedience to God's calling upon his life. The calling of the church is to help people find their way back to God. Over the years, Berj has traveled extensively and served God in numerous countries. While in France, he worked with Evangelical Churches in Paris, helped raise much needed funds for the Espoir Pour L'Armenie and served as the treasurer of the European Student Missionary Association for three years. From 1993 to 2001 Berj worked as a missionary with Operation Mobilization serving as the head of the communication and discipleship departments. During those years, Berj has also served in various denominational churches in the United Kingdom. He is an EFL teacher who taught and invigilated exams for Cambridge University and served as a part time director for Stanton Schools of English in Soho, London. He is a graduate of European Bible Institute, Paris France, International Christian College, Glasgow, Scotland, New Brunswick Theological Seminary, New Brunswick, NJ and Alliance Theological Seminary, Nyack, NY. He serves on numerous boards of missional and denominational organizations. Berj's passion is to see people experience God's transformative power through the Holy Spirit in their lives. His hobbies include: biking, walking, reading and photography. He is married to Louise (Goligher) and they have three children Sevan, Sophie and Benjamin.
