We Gather in God's Name

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Autumn has caught us in our summer wear.

-Philip Larkin, British poet (1922-86)

WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP

based on Psalm 113

L: You who serve the LORD - praise!

P: Let the LORD's name be blessed from now until forever from now!

L: From sunrise to sunset,

P: let the LORD's name be praised!

*HYMN #619 "Praise, My Soul, the God of Heaven"

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

based on Jeremiah 8:19

O God,

Do we break your heart?

Do we anger you with our loyalties to pointless gods?

We serve many – work, wealth, power, addictions.

We listen to those who prey on our fears,

on our desire for retribution,

on our need to feel superior.

Our pride keeps us from exposing our true selves to others,

our woundedness, our doubts, our sorrows,

and the lies we tell ourselves.

continued

Forgive us, Compassion's Heart, and heal us of our brokenness.
Make us well, so that by our healing,
we might be the inspiration, hope and love others need in their lives, even as Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, brought these gifts to us.
Amen.

(Time for silent confession)

ASSURANCE OF GOD'S GRACE AND PASSING THE PEACE

L: May the peace of Christ be with you.

P: And also with you.

ASSURANCE RESPONSE #389 "Come and Sing the Praise of the Lord"

PARISH LIFE & CONGREGATIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

God's Word Is Proclaimed

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

based on 1 Timothy 2

May the Spirit give life to these ancient texts and to their proclamation,
so that they would be a true testimony for us today.
Amen.

WORD FOR OUR YOUNGEST DISCIPLES

(Children under age 6 may go to the nursery. Parents who have not signed their child into the nursery today should go with their child.)

FIRST READING

1 Timothy 2:1-7

L: The word of the Lord. P: Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

L: The word of the Lord. P: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

Rev. Mike Wilson

We Respond to God's Word

*HYMN #792

“There is a Balm in Gilead”

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION, PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

During the prayer, the leader will open a space for you to say aloud your individual prayers.

You may come forward during the prayer to light a candle at the prayer table.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

OPPORTUNITY FOR GENEROUS GIVING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Ye That Do Your Master's Will Orlando Gibbons

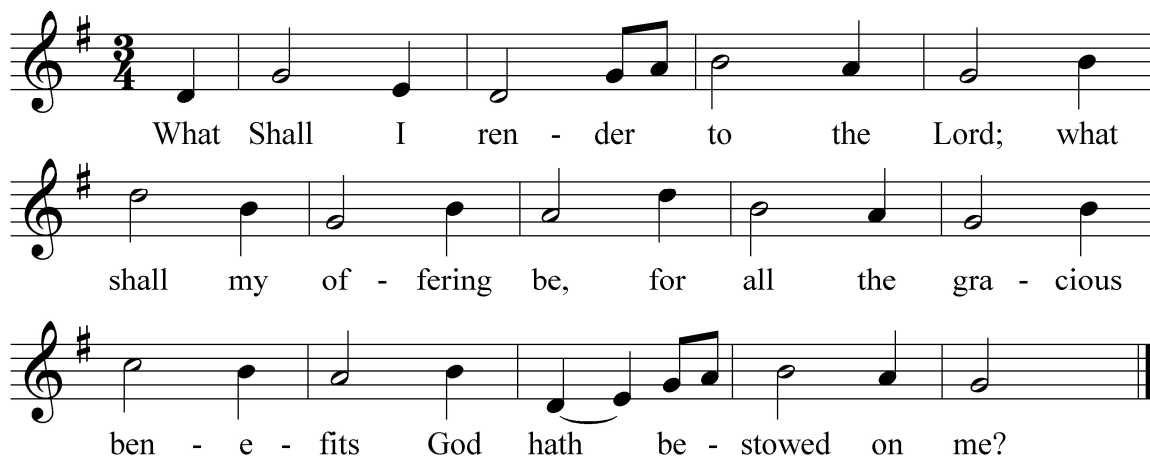

Ye that do your Master's will, meek in heart, be meeker still.
Day by Day your sins confess, ye that walk in righteousness.
Gracious souls in grace abound, seek the Lord whom ye have found.

God that comforts all that morn shall to joy your sorrow turn.
Joy to know your sins forgiven, joy to keep the way of Heaven.
Joy to win welcome grace, joy to see God face to face.

— Charles Wesley

Sunday School: Conversations

DPC Christian Education is hosting a morning conversation based on the Luke parables! Each Sunday a DPC member or friend will host a conversation.

The host of the class will start the morning with their own impressions, intuitions, experiences, and lessons they gain within a parable. The goal is to have everyone to join in and be heard and to learn something we individually might not have seen or felt.

It's an easy and fun way to learn more about the Gospel of Luke and to discuss how we all hear the Word through the Bible. Join "Conversations" 9:45 - 10:45 on Sundays!

To learn more or to be a host e-mail Dave Coleman (Dave_four@hotmail.com)

Are you ready for some DODGEBALL?!

The DPC Outreach Committee is sponsoring two dodgeball teams at this year's Siloam Health fundraiser. The tournament will be at Tailgate Brewery on Charlotte Pike from 3-6pm on Saturday, September 28.

They are going with a 90s theme, so get out your old concert Ts and flannel shirts!! Coach Brandon Bell will make sure we are all having the best possible time! If you aren't interested in playing, please come cheer us on!!

Tour the Siloam Clinic, October 12th at 11:00 a. m.

The Director of Engagement, Wes Harrell, will be leading, and he really wants us to see the Clinic in action. DPC has been supporting this group for many years. They serve Nashville's uninsured, underserved and culturally marginalized. Their patients and clients come from over 80 homelands and speak more than 70 languages. Their mission has always been to share the love of Christ by serving those in need through health care. Ridley and Irene Wills' son Morgan is the President and CEO and has been with them for a number of years in leadership positions. Please give consideration to taking the visit to Siloam - it is truly amazing! Send Jim Dickson your e-mails of acceptance of this invitation. His address is deserata1@hotmail.com. We look forward to a nice crowd of DPC folks attending.

John Bell in Nashville

On Saturday, September 28, Second Presbyterian Church and The Downtown Presbyterian Church will co-host a day with John Bell at Second Presbyterian.

John is a Scottish hymn-writer and theologian with 18 credits in our hymnal, Glory to God. He's also Church of Scotland minister and longtime member of the Iona Community. In addition to several volumes of hymns and songs, John has also published books on the teaching and renewal of congregational singing, collections of liturgies, and biblical studies.

His ecumenical work deeply engages issues of social justice throughout the world. Recent efforts have taken him to South Africa, New Zealand and Australia. He regularly travels to churches and conferences in the UK, US and Canada. His primary passion is the renewal of congregational worship at the grass roots level.

While in Nashville John will conduct two Saturday sessions. The first session will be based on his book Ten Things They Never Told Me About Jesus: A Beginners Guide to a Larger Christ. John will explore facets of the personal life, relationships and ministry of Jesus which are seldom the stuff of preaching or conversation, but which are all rooted in the Gospels and are necessary if we are to be freed from the passive stereotypes which still dominate thinking about Christ.

The second will be on congregational singing in which we'll learn by doing. Using methods honed over thousands of sessions, John will have us singing in ways we might not think possible. He'll also make a case for congregational song as an indispensable centerpiece of worship and why not only can everyone sing, but why we must.

The Saturday sessions will begin at 10:00 a.m. and conclude at 3:30 p.m. with lunch in between.

The cost for lunch will be $12 and an offering will be collected to cover John's costs.

On Sunday, September 29, John will speak in worship at Second Presbyterian but DPC folks are more than welcome to worship there if they are so moved.

Volunteers are needed to help with the event. Jobs include working the book sales table, the lunch ticket table and general hospitality. Please contact Pastor Mike if you are able to help at mikewilson@dpchurch.com

Meetups With Mike

The Personnel Committee and Pastor Mike would like to invite you to set up an informal one on one (or two) get together with him this summer. Call or email (mikewilson@dpchurch.com) to schedule coffee, a meal - breakfast, lunch or dinner are all possible - a walk in the park, a home visit, or just some time at the church. Let's all get to know Mike better and let him know us!

Please help DPC make more friends!

We have something pretty neat here at the Downtown Presbyterian Church and we should share it with the world, right? Social media is a great way to spread the word (and the Word). But unfortunately, due to currently limited "likes" and followers, the DPC page does not show up very high in Facebook searches. We're trying to change that because low Facebook followership means that it's harder for us to reach Nashville visitors and residents who are looking for a place to worship or might be interested in our programs and activities. To improve our search standings, we plan to start doing a better job of posting interesting and relevant content regularly -- without overloading your Facebook feed (we promise).

We are also asking you to help by doing two things. First, please "like" our page at <https://www.facebook.com/downtownpresbyteriannashville/> (if you haven't already) and make a point to visit the page and react to it -- periodically "liking" and commenting on posts. (In Facebook lingo, this is called "engagement" and helps us in the search algorithm.) Next, please invite your Facebook friends, especially those who live in Nashville, to "like" our page as well. (There's a nifty little tool in Facebook that you can use to invite friends to like a page. When you're on our page look to the right under the "Community" heading for "Invite friends to like this page.")

Our Facebook page is like our digital billboard to the world, so we want to get it in front of as many people as possible. Please contact Justin Near (justinnear@gmail.com) or Holly Kellar (holly.kellar@gmail.com) with any questions and thank you for your help!

Join DPC's Grant-Writing Team!

Do you like to write? Do you like asking for money? Do you love DPC? If so, will you please think about joining the Team of Super Friends of DPC in grant-writing? If you have a hankering to help out DPC by joining this group of friends, WE WANT YOU! Please see Chuck Cardona or David Maddox after worship!

Volunteers Needed for Saturday Breakfast

Every Saturday morning DPC opens its doors to Nashville's homeless and urban poor community to provide hot, nutritious meals in a warm, inviting space.

Volunteers from DPC are welcome EVERY Saturday. We want to enlarge our pool of experienced DPC hosts for those Saturdays when other churches and organizations are sending volunteers. Go here to sign up for any Saturday and to see who else is coming: <https://goo.gl/yQi9wA>

We provide complimentary parking for all volunteers.

Electronic Giving!

Want an easy way to donate to DPC? Just text "dpchurch" to 73256. You'll get a link to a secure site that will scan your credit card info. You can even choose what special DPC fund you want to give to. It only takes about a minute!

Thanks for supporting the ministries of Downtown Presbyterian Church!

Our Mission

Gathering in the heart of Nashville, we are a community of disciples of Jesus Christ. We seek the welfare of the city as we seek the kingdom of God.

We are an historic church working to be a welcoming and inclusive congregation. Together we actively share God's grace and love through worship, education and service, and through being an active voice in promoting justice and peace in our community and the world.

Our Values and Ethos

We believe that every person is a beloved child of God.

Our welcome extends to everyone, whatever your economic circumstances, your faith background, your racial or ethnic identity, your sexual orientation or gender identity, or your political affiliations.

As a diverse community we seek to intentionally embody God's radically inclusive and transformative love for everyone. With love and grace, we are called as a community to grow together as a voice for justice and peace - each as we are, with our unique human stories of joy and struggle.
