History

The Rev. Dr. David E. Culley was for many years Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament at Western (now Pittsburgh) Theological Seminary. On his retirement he moved to a lake property at Syracuse, Indiana, and became a member of what was then the Presbytery of Wabash River, Synod of Indiana, United Presbyterian Church in the USA.

His concern for ministerial students continued and he gave expression to that concern through many years of service on Presbytery's Committee on Candidates for the Ministry.

Upon his death his widow, Mrs. Helen Culley, began to put into effect their joint plans for continuing the expression of the concern for ministers by giving their property on Lake Wawasee to the Presbytery. Presbytery sold the property and established the David E. and Helen C. Culley Memorial Fund.

On the realignment of the presbyteries of Indiana, an independent 501-C-3 Non-Profit corporation was formed to administer the Fund.

Purpose

The fund was established in 1972 and our purpose today is to assist ordained clergy, commissioned lay pastors, and Christian educators in their continuing education. Help for formal education leading to a degree is not the fund's primary purpose.

Donations to the Culley Fund for its stated purpose may be sent to the treasurer at the address listed.
