

- Located near the west side of Columbus.
- An emerging urban ministry of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley (PSV).
- A place for PSV congregations to work together in a hands-on-mission.
- Opportunities abound for mission response to the needs of the Hilltop, Franklin and far west side of Columbus.
- Governed, funded and operated by mission partners.
- Can serve as a model for co-operative ministries in urban, suburban and rural areas.

The Presbytery of Scioto Valley congregations already engaged in this ministry are: Columbus Hoge Memorial Presbyterian Church, Overbrook Presbyterian Church, Westminster Presbyterian Church; Delaware Concord Presbyterian Church, Lithopolis Bloom Presbyterian Church, and Worthington Presbyterian Church.

New Mission Project!

An emerging urban ministry of the Presbytery of Scioto Valley. Partner congregations are invited to participate in the new mission project.

Our goal is to meet the spiritual needs of the community including, but not limited to, opportunities to mentor displaced workers, tutor neighborhood children, and assist the Shalom Zone with mediation and Peacemaking endeavors.

The Presbytery of Scioto Valley Urban Ministry Center

Each Saturday Evening

Alternative Worship Service

“Come as you are “

Offering prayer with Christian fellowship, music, message and meal.

Medical Outreach

Providing free medical assessments and services to those who cannot afford health care. We are currently serving 20-30 patients weekly.

Food Pantry

Emergency supply of food to an average of 200 plus families per month.

The Food Pantry serves the community four days per month by providing non-perishable foods, fresh produce, hygiene products, dog and cat food.
