Columbus Highlands Presbyterian Church...

This Week's Congregation Lifted up in prayer.

The Highlands Presbyterian Church began in 1965 with the purchase of land on Smoky Row Road in northwest Franklin County. The congregation was formally organized in 1978 with 74 charter members under the leadership of the Reverend Philip Ferguson as the organizing pastor. Today, with the leadership of the Reverend Ron Botts, this congregation continues its history of an excellent music program and a commitment to serving the needs of people. Highlands Presbyterian Church (HPC) celebrates the differences in each person and welcomes all people. The mission of HPC is to create a faithful community that supports each member's faith journey in Christ, that seeks to show God's love to each other and throughout the world, and that strives to bring Christ's teachings to life each day wherever we are, and in whatever we do. To learn more about HPC and its faithful ministries, visit the church website: highlands-presbyterian.org.

PYT Director Gina Yeager-Buckley is leading the search for the production team of 26 people - youth and adults - who share a passion for youth ministry. Yeager-Buckley strives to assemble a production team that is reflective of the diversity of the PC(U.S.A.). Coordinating with Triennium staff, the production team will work to refine the many layers of this large-scale event. Because the nature of the work is inherently behind the scenes, good listeners and an ability to work with others is necessary to the success of the team. Those interested in applying should visit:

www.presbyterianyouthtriennium.org. Applications will be accepted through September 13, 2017. For highlights and a preview of the Presbyterian Youth Triennium experience, purchase the 2017 videos at <http://store.pcusa.org/2216616002> and <http://store.pcusa.org/2216616001>.
