The Presbytery OF SCIOTO VALLEY

Presbytery Mission and Vision Statement

*God calls us through the Holy Spirit to connect with each other to plant, grow and nurture vital, faithful communities of Christ for service and ministry.
In response we build partnerships, communicate with and support congregations,
leaders and individuals,
and embody Christ's transforming love in the world.*

PSV Commission for Nurture and Outreach (CNO) Announces a new "PSV Global Missions Network"

Is your congregation already engaged in global missions, wanting to become more involved with global missions, or willing to help others learn about and become involved in global missions?

If so, plans are unfolding for a new "PSV Global Missions Network" of representatives from all congregations in our presbytery that wish to support, encourage, and inform one another about opportunities and healthy models of mission involvement.

Global Missions Network Meeting in Worthington

On March 12, fourteen people from across the presbytery, met at the Worthington Presbyterian Church to begin planning for a larger "gathering" of congregational

Pastors in the Hanging Rock area of the Presbytery gathered in Jackson for a day of training and a time of fellowship. The Healthy Boundaries Training, a requirement for all pastors in active ministry, provides an opportunity to discover the importance of maintaining appropriate and respectful boundaries.

Pentecost Offering on May 20

Your gift to the Pentecost Offering helps the church encourage, develop, and support its young people, and address the needs of at-risk children. 40% of the Pentecost offering can be retained by individual congregations wanting to make an impact in the lives of young people within their own community. The remaining 60% is used to support ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency, which include Young Adult Volunteers, Ministries for Youth, Children-at-Risk and Pentecost Offering Financials. Pentecost resources can be found at: <http://www.presbyterianmission.org>.
