Clerk's Corner...By Sally Robinson, PSV Stated Clerk

I am writing this on the 4th of July, remembering that our founders based this country's form of government on our Presbyterian form of government - representative, constitutional, and relational. Those fundamentals were in place at the 223rd General Assembly (GA) as overtures were brought forth from committees and discussed, as commissioners were advised by advisory delegates, and voting took place. The overture that was of interest to many of you was #05-03 from Cincinnati Presbytery, and concurred with by several presbyteries, including our own, asking for an Administrative Commission to review the Synod of the Covenant. The Synod sent an overture in opposition to General Assembly as well. What came out of the Committee on Mid-Council and approved by GA was a recommendation that the Co-moderators of the PC(USA) appoint an Administrative Commission, but also place an emphasis on reconciliation. And that is a hallmark of our Constitution. Even in the Book of Discipline, the emphasis of correction is not on punishment, but reconciliation. We always need to remember we are the Body of Christ.
