From the Moderator..... Martha Pool

Let me reminisce for a few minutes. When I concluded my term as moderator (the first time) in April 2000, some of you may remember that we spent that year building the house of PW. We used the four newsletters and four gatherings to metaphorically build a house starting with the blueprints and foundation, then walls, roof, plumbing and wiring, and finishing touches (using the PW purpose to interpret all of those things). We ended with an open house at Spring Gathering. You may also remember that the CT leaders wore play construction hats and carpenter's aprons as identifiers at the gatherings. With a bit of tongue in cheek, I passed the key to that house to the next moderator, Lynn Coons, with the added caveat that there was a pool in the backyard (and she was ever so grateful!).

Well, the key has been handed back to me and I must say the house of PW looks a bit different. It seems well-lived in and quite comfortable, but it appears that some parts might benefit from a bit of repair and updating. That's what 21 years will do to any house! But as I survey our PW house, I think we not only need to update things but even expand it. Are you ready for some changes? Fasten your seatbelts and hold onto your hats! When the CT met in May and June to begin planning for this current year, I began to share some of my ideas with them, which then led to forming a smaller task group (the Dream Team) to determine where to start to enlarge this house of PW. Check out the survey (found elsewhere in this newsletter) to see some of those ideas and to ascertain your interest in any or all of them.

Change does not come easy. And change is messy. We can't keep doing the same things expecting something different. It doesn't work that way. So, I'm jumping in with both feet to see what God has in store for PW/PSV. Please, join me in this venture. Your ideas, prayers, and support are needed and welcomed to see this remodeling to completion. It's going to be one wild ride – I guarantee it!

Shalom,

Martha

Meet with your PW Moderator, Martha Pool

Your PW Moderator is making herself available to meet in person or on Zoom for conversation and questions. She is interested in experiencing firsthand what your church's group is doing or not doing, where you are struggling or where you are finding success. To get this started she has come up with some days/times in August and September to join her on Zoom from anywhere you might be. Contact her (mjpool53@gmail.com) so she can send you a Zoom invitation for the day you are available. Here are the days you can choose from:

- Thursday, August 19, 10 am
- Saturday, August 28, following Summer Gathering
- Monday, August 30, 7 pm
- Thursday, September 9, 7:30 pm
- Wednesday, September 29, 2 pm

PW/PSV has an email address!

Do you need PW resources but don't know where to turn? You'd like to have a speaker for your circle? You have a question about PW but don't know who to ask? Send your questions and requests to the new PW/PSV email address: psvpresbywomen@gmail.com

The message will actually go to our secretary, Alice Harker, who will get the message to appropriate persons on the CT who could help answer your questions and requests.

PW/PSV logo PW/PSV would like to create a logo specifically for us. It would go on letterhead, on our website and Facebook pages, etc. Are you creative with visual symbols? Do you enjoy experimenting with colors, shapes, words? Do you have ideas for a logo? We would love to see what you create. Send your samples to Martha Pool, mjpool53@gmail.com by September 1.

About the Summer Gathering

FROM VANN ROGERS, VICE MODERATOR FOR STUDY AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

SHALOM!

I'M THE NEW VICE MODERATOR FOR STUDY AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT. I'VE MOVED BACK TO COLUMBUS, AFTER SPENDING MOST OF MY PROFESSIONAL LIFE IN DAYTON AND CINCINNATI, OHIO. I RETIRED FROM SINCLAIR COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN DAYTON. I HAVE RETURNED TO BETHANY PRESBYTERIAN, THE CHURCH OF MY YOUTH, WHEN WE HAD "CIRCLES". I DON'T REMEMBER WHEN I LEARNED ABOUT PW, BUT I NOW ENJOY LEARNING VIA THE BIBLE STUDIES.

OUR SUMMER GATHERING, ZOOM 9:30 A.M. AUGUST 28, 2021, WILL FEATURE THIS YEAR'S BIBLE STUDY "WHAT MY GRANDMOTHERS TAUGHT ME", LEARNING FROM THE WOMEN IN MATTHEW'S GENEALOGY OF JESUS.

CODY F. MILLER, FROM COLUMBUS, OHIO, THE ARTIST FOR THE BIBLE STUDY, WILL BE JOINING US. I ALWAYS LOVE THE ART IN PW BIBLE STUDIES, AND THIS YEAR IS NO DIFFERENT! SEE MORE OF CODY'S ART AT WWW.CODYFMILLER.COM AND INFO@CODYFMILLER.COM.

KATIE KINNISON, WHO IS NO STRANGER TO OUR PW GATHERINGS, WILL INTRODUCE US TO THE BIBLE STUDY WITH HER WORKSHOP. I TOO HAVE LEARNED FROM KATIE AT PREVIOUS GATHERINGS AND SHE PROVIDES GOOD IDEAS AND GOOD FOOD FOR THOUGHT!

MATTHEW 5:9 "BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS FOR THEY WILL BE CALLED CHILDREN OF GOD".

"SEEKING SHALOM" IS OUR THEME FOR 2021, AND I WANTED TO KNOW THE MEANING OF THE WORD "SHALOM". THE FIRST TIME I HEARD THE WORD "SHALOM", I WAS AT A SYNAGOGUE IN COLUMBUS WITH MY GIRL SCOUT BROWNIE TROOP. I LEARNED THAT IN ARABIC IT MEANS "PEACE". IT ALSO MEANS FREEDOM FROM FEAR, INJUSTICE, DISORDER AND OPPRESSION (BOTH INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL!), WHOLENESS, SAFETY, WELL-BEING AND GOOD INTENTIONS, HARMONIOUS RELATIONSHIPS, A RIGHT WAY TO LIVE AND WORK, COMPLETENESS, PROSPERITY AND TRANQUILITY, AS WELL AND "HELLO" AND "GOODBYE". WOW! IF I'M SEEKING SHALOM, I WANT IT ALL! SHALOM!

Meet our program presenters.....

Mr. Miller was the art instructor at Art Bridge Studio, a division of United Cerebral Palsy of Central Ohio for 16 years, and is currently a resident artist at the Goodwill Art Studio and Gallery.

Rev. Katie Kinnison is a familiar face to PWPSV which is our good fortune. She is an ordained Presbyterian pastor who has spoken at many PW events at Presbytery and Synod Gatherings, particularly to introduce the Horizons study. Formerly an Associate Pastor at Covenant, she provided monthly training for Bible study and constant encouragement for PW.

Welcome

Bystander Intervention Training

(Free via Zoom, multiple days/times) - The one-hour, interactive training will teach you the 5D's of bystander intervention methodology. It will begin by talking about the types of disrespect that Asian and Asian American folks are facing right now — from microaggressions to violence — using a tool we call the “spectrum of disrespect.” You'll learn what to look for and the positive impact that bystander intervention has on individuals and communities. Five strategies for intervention will be shared: distract, delegate, document, delay, and direct; and how to prioritize your own safety while intervening.

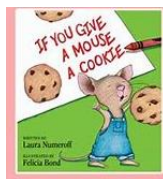

There will be time at the end of the training for practice, and you'll leave feeling more confident intervening the next time you see Anti-Asian/American harassment (or harassment towards anyone) online or in person.

Registration (free) is available through www.ihollaback.org/bystanderintervention/.

Presbytery Prayer Team

The Presbytery Nurture and Outreach Commission is going to establish a Presbytery Prayer Team (PPT) in the near future. Alice Phillips from Plain City PC will lead this team and it will meet weekly via Zoom to pray for any concerns that have been emailed or shared with the team and to pray for the church/pastor of the week. If you would be interested in serving on this team as a representative from PW/PSV, please let Martha Pool (mjpool53@gmail.com) know.

A Book for Every Child

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is dedicated to inspiring a love of reading by gifting books free of charge to children from birth to age five, through funding shared by Dolly Parton and local community partners in the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Australia and Republic of Ireland.

Inspired by her father's inability to read and write Dolly started her Imagination Library in 1995 for the children within her home county. Today, her program spans five countries and gifts over 1 million free books each month to children around the world.

This program is available to every child in Ohio. There are more than 700,000 children in Ohio eligible to sign up to receive books, but only about a third of them are currently enrolled. Pass on the information or give gifts to those around you who could be part of this endeavor. Visit www.imaginationlibrary.com to enroll children.

MISSION INTERPRETATION - VM Lynn Coons

Mission: From the Latin word mitto, mittere, missus, meaning to send or sent. Specifically, a body of persons sent by a church to carry on religious work, esp. evangelization in foreign lands, and often to establish schools, hospitals, etc. (The Random House Dictionary of the English Language, Jess Stein, Editor in Chief, 1967)

I've been thinking a lot about mission since I volunteered to serve as VM for Mission Interpretation. Frankly, I've been doing a lot of remembering. How did I come to care so much about mission?

I've been exposed to mission since I was a child. One of my mother's childhood friends was a missionary to the Congo during the 1950's and early 1960's and Mom sent some of our gently used clothing to Marianne. The Levais were members of Old First Reformed Church in Passaic, NJ, the church where Mom (and I) grew up. Their son, Blaise (a good friend of Mom's though older), and his wife Marian, a doctor, went to India as missionaries. They'd come back from time to time and my brother and I got to play with their four towheaded kids while Blaise and Marian and Mom and Dad would talk – I'm certain about all their mission work.

Though at the time I didn't really understand what any of them did, it clearly made a big impression on me. Mom and Dad gave me a biography about Ida Scudder, to my knowledge the first female medical missionary in India.

I was never privileged to go on a mission trip as a child as our kids were. However, I was encouraged to volunteer in our community. I worked as a candy-striper the summer I was 15 in a charity hospital in Paterson, NJ. I also tutored kids at a nearby church. I never thought of it before, but isn't that mission?

Mission. When did you first become aware of mission? When were you first involved with mission? Typically, we Presbyterians went abroad to plant schools and hospitals in order to turn people to God. We even did mission work here in the States. Today, I sense mission is much broader and more peace-filled. There are no more Poisonwood Bibles. At least I pray there are not. Rather than imposing our ways, we attempt to come alongside, to nourish people where they are and perhaps turn them to God by our love. And more and more I sense we're learning that those with whom we're in mission have a lot to teach us. Mission, a two-way street. God's love directs the traffic.

Shalom,

Lynn Coons

Mission Pledge Forms – for groups AND individuals

Mission Pledge Forms for 2022 will be sent out with the directories. The forms will also be on our PW/PSV webpage for easy download. This year we are reimagining mission giving. If your church has an active PW group which already makes a mission pledge, there are no changes. If you belong to a church that does not have an active PW group, you as an individual may continue to support PW by making an individual mission pledge. You would send your mission offering to the PW/PSV treasurer, Nancy Shuster, in 2022

Mission Pledges are divided the following ways: 80% going to the General Assembly Mission Program, 10 % to the Synod Mission Program and 10 % to the Presbytery Mission Program. The 80% given to the General Assembly Mission Program is used for worldwide mission and also supports the Churchwide Coordinating Team and PW Staff. Individuals can also pledge to support PW in our own presbytery and synod. A suggested amount is 10% over and above the mission pledge amount. Individuals may also contribute to the special offerings: Thank Offering, Birthday Offering, and Fellowship of the Least Coin. All monies should be sent to the PW/PSV treasurer.

Some Solutions for Addressing Poverty -VM for Justice and Peace ,Susan Imel

I struggled with finding a topic for the Justice and Peace column in this newsletter. Issues related to justice and peace cover a broad spectrum: should the column address racism, voting rights, poverty, the continuing effects of the pandemic, gun violence, wrongful convictions, or another area? We read or hear about these areas and frequently don't know how we can make a difference. What actions can we take to address them?

A goal of a recent book, Broke in America: Seeing, Understanding, and Ending U.S. Poverty, is to help readers see poverty and then address it. The authors, Joanne Samuel Goldblum and Colleen Shaddox, begin the book with a chapter designed to "throw out the caricature" that many of us have about people in poverty. They maintain that poverty has been invisible to those who are not experiencing it. Goldblum, founder of the diaper project, and Shaddox, a journalist with a long history of "writing too many stories about poor people," have produced a book that examines the role of discrimination, sexism, and racism in trapping people in poverty.

The voices of those affected fill the book. Shane Ward, a former truck driver who had to give up driving due to a disability and to become his mother's full-time caregiver, says "I just want people to read this book to understand that we're not losers. We're not lowlifes. We're human beings that want everything in life just like everybody else." These voices put a face on poverty and the situations that create it.

Each chapter of the book ends with a section titled "What Can I do?" that contains a list of concrete steps that can be taken to address the chapter's topic. Suggestions range from making contact with policy makers to advocate for changes to providing direct services. One of the suggestions at the end of the hygiene chapter, for example, is to start or support a basic needs bank. This suggestion could be implemented by adding hygiene products to an existing food pantry, which some churches already do.

Covenant, the church I attend, has a food pantry that delivers and, after reading the chapter on hygiene, members of the book discussion group approached the food pantry coordinator about adding children's and adult diapers and feminine hygiene products to the pantry. Hygiene items were collected through a special drive and repackaged into a 3-day supply. Now when clients are contacted about their food delivery, they are asked if any of these items are needed. One client was nearly in tears when she learned she could get some adult diapers.

Broke in America can be used by individuals or groups seeking ways address issues related to poverty. Ask your church or local library to order a copy and/or form a book discussion group to talk about the book with others.

Survey – We want (need) your opinion!

PW/PSV understands that many PW groups were not able to meet last year and had no way to do the 2020-2021 PW Bible study on Lament (Into the Light: Finding Hope through Prayers of Lament). We would like to offer that study to any woman in our presbytery via Zoom this coming year. Although a start date has not been set, details about the time and frequency of the bible study will be based on the responses from those interested.

We would also like to offer the 2019-2020 PW Bible study on the Ten Commandments (Love Carved in Stone) if there is enough interest. This would probably not start until early 2022. Again, a start date has not been set and details about the time and frequency of the bible study will be based on the responses from those interested.

We would also like to offer the use of our PW/PSV Zoom account to PW groups to use for regularly scheduled meetings.

Another idea is to offer book discussions via Zoom. We would like to do three or four of these throughout the year to connect women across our presbytery. Once we decide on books and leaders, we would advertise a time for these. If there is enough interest we might offer both daytime and evening groups.

We would like to bring special speakers to our presbytery via zoom for conversation and questions. There may be a small cost to attend these depending on the cost of the speaker. Or maybe bring someone in to do a program that they have offered elsewhere (such as portrayal of a biblical woman or a specific bible story).

We're even thinking about an overnight retreat. Cost for room and board would be charged at minimum. We would probably look at March 2022 on a Friday evening until late afternoon on Saturday for the retreat.

The CT (PW/PSV Coordinating Team) is interested in finding ways to get more women interested in PW. Forming a task group to focus on ideas is one way to approach this.
