A Request for our Congregations: Can You Help Give 10 Kids' Coats for Kids Drive?

The Presbytery's Capital City Helping Hands (CCHH) (formerly WUM) ministry asks each congregation: Can you find and give 10 kids' coats – gently used or new – Coats for Kids Drive? Our Presbytery, with 87 congregations, could easily provide 1,000 kids in the Central Ohio area with warm coats if each congregation provides 10 coats! Can you commit to this action in ministry? Here are how some congregations are acting on this call:

1. Put up a coat rack in your sanctuary, and invite people to place a coat on it;
2. Ask your PW to help you collect coats.
3. Use $100 from your Deacon's fund, go to the Salvation Army, and buy 10 used kids' coats.
4. Ask your members to use their Costco Rewards check to buy 10 kids' coats at Costco.
5. And more possibilities...Drop off your 10 coats at the Presbytery office Monday-Thursday, 9-4.

(Since the building is locked, call the Presbytery Office before dropping off.)

Or drop them off at the drop-off sites on Saturday, November 6, from 9 am – noon:

1. Presbytery offices/Overbrook PC parking lot at 4131 North High Street in Columbus 43214; and
2. Covenant PC parking lot at 2070 Ridgecliff Road, at the corner of Ridgecliff and Redding Roads, in Columbus, Ohio 43221. Thank you!

"He answers and said to them, He that has two coats, let him impart to him that has none; and he that has meat, let him do likewise."

by the Reverend Katie Kinnison and the Reverend Amy House

Coming to the Church Professional's Retreat? Remember the retreat program finishes before lunch, and you are going to have to eat somewhere. Why not a free lunch and some good information that could enliven your ministry and you? Stay for an extra hour with our presbytery's Vital Congregations Facilitators Rev. Amy House and Rev. Katie Kinnison. We will explain more of the basic logistics, make a good case for how pastors could end up doing less work and share the load more, explain how this initiative can be used by churches in transition, offers ways for you to present Vital Congregations to your church, and give you some good resources. Our first round of cohorts (some for pastors and we hope some for elders too) will begin in January. To register email Amy at revamyehouse@gmail.com or Katie at katierkinnison@gmail.com
