FREE Information Session

What can be provided:

- Help your congregation prepare for a disaster.
- Help your congregation organize a work team.
- Help your congregation organize to be a host church following a disaster.
- Help families/children/ individuals prepare for a disaster.

An information session can be designed according to your interests and needs as well as fitting your time constraints. Martha Pool has been trained as part of the partnership between Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and Presbyterian Women to lead these sessions.
