FROM THE PASTOR

Each day upon waking up, I have an expectation of what my day may be like. Breakfast, morning coffee with friends at a local watering hole, chores, hobbies, lunch and dinner with Judy, visiting grandchildren for ballgames and recitals, etc. You too, have your expected daily routine. Oops! Then life happens. A dreaded phone call telling you that a loved one has died, a health report stating you have a significant illness, a neighbor in trouble, job change, etc.

While I know life consists of unexpected events (positive and negative), I arise every morning not anticipating them today.

My plans for the summer and fall consisted of relearning how to fish (new boat), golfing, weekly motorcycle trips with friends, visiting grandchildren in Utah (and their parents) and traveling with Judy.

It was an unexpected life event the day FPCRM leaders called to ask if I would consider serving as bridge interim pastor while they searched for a full-time interim minister. FPC was not on my radar screen but it didn't take long before I realized this is what I was being called to do. You see, I have lived my life with the attitude, "Lord, guide me in ways to serve you." However, I expected to serve in smaller "bites," you know the kind that would match my retirement plans, a little bit here and a little bit there.

As each of you know quality of life is not in the content of what we do but in the attitude we have. One could play golf and it could be the worst experience or the best experience ever--attitude. Likewise, I would never have chosen my dad to have Alzheimer's disease. Many of you know how difficult it is to have loved ones live with this disease. When this happened, I learned to pray, "why not us, we are not any better than anyone else." When our son was diagnosed with lymphoma cancer we approached it the same way. Now that doesn't mean we didn't cry, hurt, and struggle. It meant we were not alone as we faced life challenges. Family, friends and our faith family were there to give us strength and support.

I have been blessed to be a part of the FPC family and I think it is in part to my being open to new possibilities (and certainly, the wonderful people I have met.) I have great appreciation for who you are. While there are many personalities and multitudes of life experiences in this family, it is my prayer to respect you as God has created you and not the way I think you should be. I invite you to join with me in living this prayer this summer—"Lord, help me to respect others for the way you have created them rather than the way I think they should be."

Peace and blessings,
Preston

Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. I Corinthians 15:57

The children and youth of FPC sang, played, worshiped, and learned alongside our neighbors from four other area churches at Vacation Bible School last month. The theme this year was "Mighty Fortress" and each day we explored a different Bible story that showed us how God acted in the lives of the people of Israel and then through Jesus to give them victory. It was a wonderful week and I am so grateful for all of the children, parents, youth, and volunteers who made this experience possible for our community. Thanks be to God!

A special shout out to cousins, Ella Wood & Lucas Sharpe and Ann Cleveland & Walt Fisher who raised money for the VBS charity by selling lemonade and homemade goods at their grandparent's (Walt and Cleve Wiggins) house!

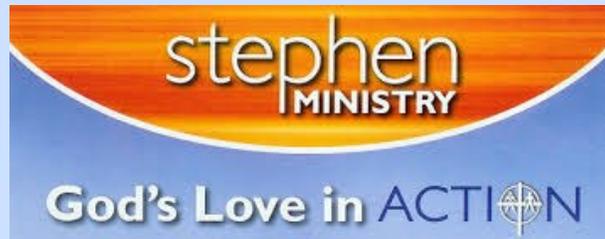

This month the youth of FPC will be very busy! We have 11 youth participating in Gatekeepers Work Camp and 21 who will be making the journey to Montreat the following week. Please pray for our youth and also the amazing volunteers, all of whom will be experiencing new things, giving back to our community, enjoying fellowship with each other, and, most importantly, growing closer to God.

News about Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministry is a lay caring ministry which is used by church congregations to increase care and outreach to hurting people. Stephen Ministers provide one-to-one, Christ-centered care to people experiencing grief, unemployment, illness, loneliness, hospitalization, and other life difficulties. To learn more about this ministry, the website is: www.stephenministries.org and the telephone number is (314) 428-2600.

First Presbyterian Church has been a Stephen Ministry congregation since the year 1997. Stephen Ministers do a great job of walking alongside people going through tough times. They are trained to bring Christ's healing love to people. During difficult times, people often feel alone. Stephen Ministers visit each week and can keep in touch by telephone. They are good listeners. They do not repeat any information given to them but demonstrate kindness and compassion with those with whom they visit. Many pastors appreciate this ministry, which is described as the priesthood of all believers in action. With a long list of people in the congregation who require visits, Stephen Ministry gives congregations a way to equip the saints to be ministers of Christ. If you know of anyone who is interested in either becoming a Stephen Minister, or a Stephen Minister Leader, please contact First Presbyterian Church at 252-446-9121. Training to become a Stephen Minister will be offered starting in October, 2017.

Training to become a Stephen Ministry Leader is offered six times each calendar year: Recent trainings were: January 8-14, 2017 in Orlando, Florida; January 29-February 4, 2017 in Anaheim, California; April 23-29, 2017 in St. Louis, Missouri; June 11-17, 2017 in Orlando, Florida.

*July 9-15, 2017 in Dallas, Texas; and July 30-August 5, 2017 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. ( Dates still open for training).

Presbyterian Women Update

PW Circles and their Leadership

Presbyterian Women meet at the congregation level in "circles." No matter what the activities, as long as women meet to build community, support mission, nurture faith and/or work for justice and peace, those women are forming a "circle." No matter how many or how few activities a women's circle undertakes, if they do it on behalf of the PW Purpose, they are a PW circle. Leadership in single-circle groups at the congregational level ideally consists of a moderator (to provide leadership to the circle and ensure communication among the members and with the congregation and session); a secretary/historian to record the work of the circle; and a treasurer to maintain the financial records of the circle. But PW is flexible! Circles don't have to be called circles and a team can have leaders who "wear more than one [leadership] hat."

UPCOMING PW EVENTS:

- The Presbyterian Women Coordinating Team will meet on Monday, July 10 at 10:30 a.m. in the History Room.
- The Circle of Friends and the Circle of J.O.Y. will resume their gatherings in September. More information to come!

First Presbyterian,

Hannah outdid herself in baking my recent birthday cake. Her creativity is simply amazing. Having Beth High deliver it just added more frosting to the cake.

I enjoyed it immensely and cannot thank the Church and my Church family enough for remembering me in such a “sweet way.”

I'm hopefully looking forward to the next one.

Blessings,
Bill Batchelor

Dear Handcraft Ministry Members,

My name is Jessica Routh and I am Blanche Robinson's granddaughter. Thank you so much for the adorable baby blanket that you made for my son, Tanner. We cherish it so much and appreciate the love, prayer, and time that you put into making it. We are so blessed to have you a part of our extended Church family.

Sincerely,
Gregory, Jessica, Paisley, and Tanner Routh, II

Dear First Presbyterian Church Members,

Thank you so much for the lovely flowers you brought me. They smelled so good and I have really enjoyed them. Thank you for your thoughtfulness.

Hannah Diedrick

Dear First Presbyterian Handcraft Ministry,

I really love the beautiful lap robe! I delivered one to Meredith Archie that you had made—I never thought or dreamed that I would get one.

Yellow is my favorite color. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Love,
Carol Patterson

Dear Ladies Knitting Group,

Thank you for the beautiful green blanket! Charlie looks so cozy in it, and our daughter Annabel loves to wrap up her dolls in it, too! You have been so thoughtful to send a blanket to all three of my children, and we treasure them. They each have a little piece of Rocky Mount up here in New York City.

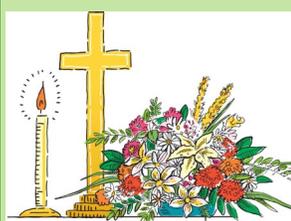

Thank you for thinking of our family during this exciting time.

Love,
Alyson (Evans) Beha
