FROM THE PASTOR

Three months have passed since I have joined you as your interim minister. I want to thank you for your gracious welcome of my family and me. Though I am still in the process of learning and remembering names, I feel that I have gotten to know many of you well. I am now in the process of setting up visits with congregational members to hear from you about your dreams for this church and your hopes for leadership.

Questions have been asked about where we are in the process of finding a new Senior Pastor. First let me explain the interim ministry process. There are five developmental tasks that I need to “check off” with you before a new minister is installed. These don’t need to be accomplished sequentially, but must be addressed during my time with you. The first is helping the church deal with the past. There may be feelings of loss, confusion, anger, or mistrust that remain among members after the leaving of the last pastor, but the church needs to also celebrate its ministry and history. The second task is to discern a new congregational identity and mission. This is where a mission study is undertaken or, in your case, probably reviewed and updated. Third is to facilitate needed shifts in its leadership. Both the staff and the committee structure need to be examined to see if they are appropriate for the stated ministry of the church. The fourth is to make sure the church is connected through our denominational linkages. And finally to commit to new leadership and ministry.

The Call process itself has already begun by the formation of your congregational nominating committee. In their work they will not only begin thinking about elders and deacons for next year but this is the group that will nominate the Pastoral Nominating Committee to begin the search for a new pastor. Normally a Study Committee is formed first and a self-study process begun. But because your last self study is recent, the Committee On Ministry can waive the requirement of doing a new self-study. Once COM gives permission for the PNC to be formed, a congregational meeting will be called to elect the members. When in place, the PNC will review the self-study and facilitate a dialogue with the congregation in determining what characteristics and ministry skills are needed. A Ministry Information Form (MIF) is then generated to be published, matched with prospective candidates, and given to those who apply for the position. The COM then again gives permission to begin the active search and the PNC can start interviewing ministers for the position.

My involvement with the process will diminish as the PNC gets closer to the search, and the interim minister is not to have any input into the evaluation of individual minister candidates when that time comes. Though interims can be employed up to two years and for some churches the process may take longer, I do not believe that will be the case with this church. If all goes well, I believe that the PNC will be fully engaged in the search sometime this Fall. I hope this answers most of the questions you might have about the process and where we are. I will try to keep you informed and up to date as often as I can, but if you have any questions do not hesitate to ask.

From the February 20, 2018 Session Meeting:

- *Clif Hayworth reported that the Nominating Committee would be meeting on Thursday to begin the process of selecting officers for the class of 2021 and for selecting the Pastor Search Committee. The session and committee ask for your continued prayers through this process.
- *The Special Gifts Committee will make a presentation to the congregation to discuss the process for allocation of the gifts and bequeaths that the church has received over the past several years. This presentation will be on Sunday March 11 after worship and during the luncheon hosted by the "church ladies". Please join us for a delicious lunch and an informative presentation regarding the session's decision on how these gifts can both help the church now and for many years to come.
- *Beth Turnage brought a recommendation from the Worship Committee to allow the youth to serve communion during worship on Youth Sunday on April 22, 2018. One of the focuses of the youth program this year has been on communion and the session unanimously approved this recommendation. Please mark your calendars for Youth Sunday as our youth will have the opportunity to share with the congregation at that time.
- *Gordon Vestal brought a recommendation from the Property Committee to reimburse Lydia $25 monthly for her cell phone use.
- *Scott reported that he would be attending a church staffing conference in Montreat in April and discussed with the session the process as we begin to search for our new minister.
- *Mary Perry was elected as the commissioner to the New Hope Presbytery meeting on Feb 24.

Please continue to pray for your session and your church. If you have any questions, comments or suggestions, please reach out to any member of the session.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH UPDATE

One of my favorite activities our church has each year is the Shrove Tuesday pancake dinner. The food is delicious but the opportunity for children, youth, and adults to come together for fellowship is really what I love the most. There is something about the richness and joy of that celebration that really does prepare our hearts and minds for the somber 40 days that we are in now by reminding us that even greater joy is just ahead of us on Easter morning! During the parade on Shrove Tuesday, the children waved ribbons that said "Alleluia" and at the end of the parade we hid them away in tomb-shaped boxes that will remind us throughout these days that we must wait for Easter to say alleluia again, when we finally see that the tomb is empty.

The youth and children will have another opportunity to be a part of a fun and exciting event this month as we prepare for and host an Easter Egg Hunt after worship on March 25 for our own children as well as guests from the Bassett Center. The youth will practice the hospitality we have been discussing in youth group as we look at what communion means to us by helping plan and lead the Egg Hunt.

Also this month two of our youth will begin the confirmation process. Please pray for Walker Rose and Abbey Lewis as they learn more about our Presbyterian faith and plan to support them by being in worship on April 22, Youth Sunday, when they are confirmed.

CHRIST CARING FOR PEOPLE,
THROUGH PEOPLE

Stephen Ministry Update for 2018

Stephen Ministry is a caring ministry which is used by congregations to increase care and outreach to hurting people. Stephen Ministers provide one-to-one,

Christ-centered care to people experiencing grief, unemployment, hospitalization, loneliness, physical illness, and other life difficulties. The Stephen Ministry website: www.stephenministries.org provides additional information on this helping ministry.

Stephen Ministry is based in St. Louis, Missouri. It was founded by Dr. Kenneth Haugk, a pastor and clinical psychologist. Since 1997, when Pat Mauldin and Lee Anderson commissioned the first class of thirteen Stephen Ministers, many hours of volunteer service have been accumulated by committed Stephen Ministers!

It has been a privilege to serve as a Stephen Minister Leader. However, with additional responsibilities that I need to honor, I find it necessary to resign from my position as Stephen Minister Leader. A list of four Leadership Trainings provided by Stephen Ministry are included here:

April 8-14, 2018 in St. Louis, Missouri, at the Renaissance St. Louis Airport Hotel.

June 10-16, 2018 in Orlando, Florida, at the Double Tree Universal Hotel.

July 15-21, 2018 in Dallas, Texas, at the Westin Park Central (Hotel).

August 5-11, 2018 in Pittsburgh, Pa. at the Wyndham Grand Pittsburgh Hotel.

The cost of transportation, and the cost of the week long Leadership Training has - in the past - been over $1,000.00. Historically, First Presbyterian Church has paid the cost of training a Stephen Minister Leader. Anyone interested in the training may contact Scott Solether, (scott.solether@fpcrm.org), or Christine Feno (cfeno42@gmail.com). The four books on Journeying through Grief, published by Stephen Ministries are still available upon request, as are other books published by Stephen Ministries.

SCOUT SUNDAY—FEBRUARY 11, 2018

TROOP 55 AND TROOP 434 (Girl Scouts)

Cookie sales wrap up on March 10. We appreciate everyone's support of our sale. Troop 55 finished an art badge by painting bowls and delivering those along with soup to the homeless shelter. Troop 434 has focused on a journey badge that deals with topics of friendship: bullying, cliques, trustworthiness, and peer pressure.

TROOP 7 NEWS (Boy Scouts)

Looking back at our scout year since our last Scout Sunday made me proud to think of all the service projects we were able to accomplish. Through "Cheerful Service" to others our scouts manned two kettle bell stations at Harris Teeter raising over $352, repaired a hiking trail at one our State Parks, painted parts for the Bee Hive project, baked cookies for cadets at the Merchant Marine Academy, collected over 1,500 pounds of food for the local shelters, completed Eagle projects at Rocky Mount Senior High, a local nursing home and My Sister's House. All told, the troop contributed over 548 man hours to our community while donating over $8,500 to projects! Not bad for a bunch of teenage scouts!!

We had 3 scouts obtain the rank of Eagle in 2017, while we currently have 4 Life scouts beginning work on their projects for 2018.

This is all made possible by the support of our church. Thank you for the donations, use of the bus, putting up with a few skid marks on the hall floors and especially for your prayers.

Presbyterian Women Update

Presbyterian Women (PW) is a churchwide organization whose membership is open to all women of the PC (USA) who choose to participate in or be supportive of the organization in any way. PW intentionally seeks the membership of women from all racial ethnic groups so that the organization reflects a vision of the whole church as a community of mutual interdependence in which diversity contributes to wholeness. PW gives strong support to the mission of the PC(USA) and determines its own leadership, program and budget. PW is organized at all levels of the PC(USA) - in congregations, presbyteries and synods as well as General Assembly. This connectional system allows ideas and information to continually flow back and forth to strengthen the work of Presbyterian Women and the ministry of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A).

This wonderful ministry provides prayer shawls, blankets, etc. to those in need of God's warmth!

Make plans to attend a performance in our sanctuary of Parts II and III of Handel's "Messiah" on Sunday, April 15th, at 4:00. Our Chancel Choir and the Rocky Mount Chamber Choir will form the core of a choir of 50 - 60 voices that will include singers from other churches and from the community.

"Messiah" traces in music the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Most people are familiar with Part I of "Messiah," the so-called Christmas portion, but many have never heard the rest of this wonderful work. There are fourteen choruses in Parts II and III, including of course the "Hallelujah" chorus and the finale of the work, the incredible "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain." Scheduled for the second Sunday after Easter, it is my hope that this performance will be a meaningful experience for all who hear it.

If you are interested in singing in the chorus, please let Jim Smith know. Rehearsals will take place on the following Thursdays at 7:00 - 9:00: March 1, 8, 15, 22, April 5, 12. The chorus/orchestra rehearsal is scheduled for 10 a.m.-12:30 on Saturday, April 14.

What a pleasant surprise to have Walker, and Mari Robin, accompanied by Mari Robin's father, James, to come in the midst of my packing up to move and brighten up my day with soup and a cupcake for Valentine's Day. It was so delicious, and I enjoyed it so much.

I am settled in my new home, and I am enjoying church flowers brought to me by Annie Daughtridge. We had a nice visit.

Giving up my home and moving into a retirement home is made less difficult by many well-wishers and prayers by my church family. Thank you so much for everything.
