If the unexpired term be for more than one year, the appointee shall be eligible for but one full term of his/her own.

D. The Chair of each Commission shall be nominated by the Commission on Representation (COR) and elected by the Presbytery at the annual meeting, to take the office in the next calendar year.

E. In addition to the Coordinating Commission, the following are the standing Commissions of the Presbytery:

The Administrative Commission shall serve as Trustees for and on behalf of the Presbytery of Transylvania, Inc., a religious corporation. The Corporation shall elect the Process Agent, who is responsible for performance of the duties prescribed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky with reference to corporations. The Stated Clerk fills this office and shall also serve as Process Agent for the Trustees. The Trustees are empowered to receive, to hold, to encumber, to manage, and to transfer property, real or personal, for the Presbytery; to accept and to execute deeds of title to such property; to hold and to defend title to such property; to manage any permanent special funds for the furtherance of the purposes of the church, when authorized to do so by the Presbytery. It is the duty of the Trustees to facilitate the management of the civil affairs of the Presbytery in keeping with the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The Trustees shall report to the Presbytery as necessary or as requested and shall function in accord with the Book of Order, G-4.02.

The Commission shall be responsible for supervision of the staff of the Presbytery in accordance with G-3.0110. When there are staff vacancies, it shall recommend to Presbytery the process by which the General Presbyter is recruited, called and hired, and to the Coordinating Commission the process by which all other staff are recruited, called and hired. It shall conduct annual performance reviews and evaluations and five-year comprehensive reviews. It shall make recommendations concerning matters related to the Presbytery staff to the CC or to the Presbytery as circumstances determine. The Commission shall provide and maintain for the Presbytery approved Personnel Policies, including a position description for all Presbytery employees.

The Commission shall obtain budget recommendations from the appropriate Commissions and Ministries of the Presbytery and develop, propose, and monitor, in consultation with the Treasurer, the Presbytery Budget, incorporate the total financial functions of the Presbytery under one single administration; maintain and supervise a single and unified accounting system subject to an annual outside audit and a simple, all inclusive financial statement whereby a comprehensive picture of the whole mission of the Presbytery can be seen.

This commission shall receive referrals from the Presbytery, the Commission on Congregational Issues or the Coordinating Commission. Such negotiations include consultation with the Administrative (Trustees) Commission.

1.4 Congregational Issues Commission

- ~~• The Congregational Issues Commission shall be composed of five members, divided into three classes.~~

This commission will work closely with the Leadership Development Ministry to help focus resources on congregational health and vitality.~~
- ~~• The commission will work closely with the Pastoral Transitions Commission if issues arise in congregations with temporary pastors or congregations that are in transition.~~
- ~~• This commission will assist congregations with any difficult issues that arise, including conflictual situations and complaints involving the actions of teaching and ruling elders. - The Commission will work closely with the Pastoral Transitions Commission if issues arise in congregations that are in transition.

• Formal complaints that rise to the level of a disciplinary case will be referred to the Presbytery's Permanent Judicial Commission.

• The Commission will also undertake other responsibilities as assigned by the Presbytery or Coordinating Commission. When necessary, the Commission may recruit, seek additional help and build teams with people who are not on the Commission.

1.5 Pastoral Transitions Commission

The Pastoral Transitions Commission shall be comprised of nine members divided into three classes. The Pastoral Transitions Commission will shepherd a congregation from the moment a Pastoral leader decides to leave, is removed from office or retires until a new leader is formally installed. This commission is responsible for working with the Session to determine the best course of action for a congregation searching for new, permanent leadership, including all the various steps of the PNC process including examining and receiving the new teaching elder/CRE, approving any Interim contracts and new terms of call. The design of this commission is to create a “turn-key” process to ease the burden, eliminate the confusion and lower the anxiety for congregations in transition. The Commission recommends Presbytery minimum terms of call each year after a thorough evaluation of national and local salary trends. This commission shall appoint moderators to Sessions of churches with leadership vacancies due to the search process and other duties assigned by the Presbytery or Coordinating Commission. This commission may recruit, seek additional help, and build teams with people not on the commission for short-term projects when necessary. This Commission has the authority to receive and dismiss teaching elders and receive candidates who have been certified to receive a call (pending their successful examination on the floor of the presbytery); the authority to approve calls, or changes in calls, when they are found to be in order, and to appoint commissions to ordain and/or install; the authority to dissolve pastoral relationships in cases where the teaching elder and congregation concur; the authority to grant the status of Honorably Retired; the authority to approve validated ministries and confer upon teaching elders the status of member-at-large; the authority to counsel with a local church session and approve the election of a Pastor Nominating Committee; the authority to grant permission to a local congregation to circulate a Ministry Information Form; the authority to approve CRE/CLP contracts and to commission each CRE/CLP to their ministry.

The Commission shall have authority to enroll or remove Inquirers and dismiss Candidates to other presbyteries, with all such actions being reported to the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

The Commission shall be responsible for the recruitment and training components of the CRE Program, in keeping with the provisions of G-2.10 and in accordance with the policies approved by the Presbytery.

The Chair of a Commission or Ministry shall report to the Stated Clerk, who shall report to the Chair of COR, concerning mid-term vacancies. This may be due to a resignation, or vacancy due to lack of participation. Should any commission or ministry member miss three consecutive meetings, and after personal contact from the ministry or commission chair, the absences shall constitute a resignation and the commission or ministry chair shall submit the resignation to the Stated Clerk. COR is charged with recommending to the CC the appointment of a temporary replacement until elections to fill vacancies can be held at the next meeting of the Presbytery.

2.5 Mission Ministry

The Mission Ministry shall seek to strengthen and support congregations in their mission to their communities and to the world, and to assist in coordinating mission opportunities within the Presbytery. To that end, the ministry:

The Youth Leadership Ministry of Transylvania Presbytery exists to foster the leadership opportunities and abilities of youth within the presbytery and host events that foster relationships and community amongst the youth of the presbytery. The Youth Leadership Ministry will be comprised of youth and the willing college, adult, elder or lay people who will facilitate the growth, leadership, decision making, and gathering of the youth.

The Youth Leadership Ministry seeks to:

Develop events programs specifically designed to gather youth from the churches of the presbytery. We will strive to upbuild relationships amongst the youth from all churches of the presbytery, building relationships with pastors and lay people doing youth ministry throughout the presbytery. We will strive to be creative, genuine, and balanced in our approach to providing events and programs for all youth of the presbytery equally.

Foster leadership opportunities and abilities for youth of the presbytery. The inner organization of the Youth Leadership Ministry will be designed to give youth the decision-making power about events and programming of the ministry. We will strive to teach youth about leadership, identity, and discernment through mentorship and specific education. The Youth Leadership Ministry will also uplift youth for leadership positions within the wider presbytery and denomination.

Encourage college-age and adult youth leaders across the presbytery. The members of the Youth Leadership Ministry will be intergenerational and diverse from within the presbytery. We hope to further foster the enthusiasm youth develop for church leadership by making room for them when they are college-aged and young adults mentor and facilitate youth as they once were.

Promote wider denominational youth events. The opportunity to attend larger denominational youth events is invaluable for all youth.
